<http://webapps.mlca.uscg.mil/KDiv/aviatrs>

The screenshot shows a web browser window displaying the E-AVIATRS login interface. At the top, there's a header with the United States Coast Guard logo and the text "e-AVIATRS" in a large, stylized green font. Below the header, on the left, is the U.S. Department of Homeland Security seal. To the right of the seal are login fields for "Login" and "Password", followed by a "Login" button. Further right, there's a message stating "This system requires all members to log in." and instructions on how to request an account. Below the login fields, there's a link for "Lost or forgotten your login information?" and a link to "REQUEST AN ACCOUNT". In the center, there's a link for "For Non-Aviation Related Mishaps, Click Here To Be Re-directed to the e-Mishap System". Below that, there's a section titled "UNITED STATES COAST GUARD DISCLAIMER AND LIMITATION OF LIABILITY" which contains a paragraph about the system's purpose and monitoring. This is followed by a section titled "RESTRICTION OF LIABILITY" which contains a paragraph about the USCG's disclaimer of liability. Below that is a section titled "OWNERSHIP" which contains a paragraph about the site's intended use. At the bottom, there's a link for "For questions or comments regarding this site, please direct your enquiry to Cathie Zimmerman (Deputy, Aviation Safety)".
